

TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 5.

democratic campaign fund in Virginia the large amount of $8. It will be remembered that he subscribed $20 to the sufferers by the Charleston earthquake.

Congressman Bryan, who spoke in Alexandria last night, is here to-day. He says the meeting was large and enthusiastic, and that the hospitality of Virginia is proverbial, and that of the Alexandria democrats sustains it fully, and that his visit to the city across the river was enjoyable in every respect.

The President is so much interested in the election news to-day that he had special wires run to the White House, by which the latest intelligence that is received is sent to him. He is said to be specially interested in the returns from Virginia, to which State the national republican committee sent one hundred thousand dollars.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Amelia News Chanler will not return to this country before next summer.

The President has received hundreds of letters inquiring if he is a Mason, all of which he has answered in the negative. He belongs to no secret society.

The Prince of Wales and his sons took luncheon yesterday in the Khedive's kitchen at Cairo, Egypt. Subsequently the distinguished visitors went to the great Calirene bazaar, which is held annually on Mahomet's birthday.

Phenax T. Barnum has made a sensation in England. He has been interviewed in railway carriages, at breakfast and in bed. The London newspapers describe his habits, costume, and record his movements. He is the biggest lion of the "grandest show on earth."

Last night Frank Bowles, a sergeant of marines, attached to the barracks at the Norfolk navy yard, committed suicide by shooting himself through the forehead while visiting the house of Salie Stevenson, on lower Church street. He died almost instantly. He had been on a spree for several days.

By the breaking out of molten iron in the stack of the Colbrook furnace, at Lebanon, Pa., yesterday, five men were killed, and three severely burned. The men, all of whom were laborers, were overwhelmed by the rush of molten metal while at work, and some of them were burned almost beyond recognition.

Adelina Patti surprised the public last week by appearing at a London concert in what was taken to be a yellow wig. It has since been found that she has become weary of being a brunette, and so dyed her hair a brilliant straw color. The effect is the most curious transformation one can easily imagine.

Yesterday, while the fishing steamer S. S. Brown was cruising off the New Jersey coast twenty five miles from the Delaware Breakwater, her boilers exploded, instantly killing Fireman Le Costa, and fatally wounding Chief Engineer Bailey and Assistant Engineer Ludlow. Three deck hands were seriously but not fatally scalded.

The latest news which has been received with regard to Stanley appears to confirm the fears which have been entertained that the Mahdists have conquered the Equatorial Province. The reason for believing this is the fact that no doubt is held that Emin would have stuck to his post there unless he had been driven out by a superior force.

Athletic Day at the Episcopal High School.

Saturday, the 2nd inst., was the fourteenth annual athletic day at the Episcopal High School near this city. The forenoon was foggy and the sun did not shine later, yet the weather was not sufficiently unpromising to prevent a large gathering of friends from neighboring cities and some from places more distant, to witness the exhibition. On no previous occasion has the number of sports been so large, and both on this account and the spirit and excellence of the contests, the present was decidedly the best display ever offered at the school. The running high jump and the pole vaulting were especially admired, but the running in the half mile race and the hundred yards dashes elicited perhaps the greatest applause. The tug of war were pronounced the best contested for many years, and the senior hurdle race was particularly fine.

Music was, as usual, supplied by ten pieces of the Marine band. The exercises began at 10 a. m., and notwithstanding the excellent management of the judges and no intermission, they were not ended before 2:30 p. m. Immediately after the conclusion, the prizes were announced upon the grounds by the Rev. Dr. Nelson, the senior judge, and presented by the hands of Miss Fanny A. M., of Baltimore.

The following is a list of the sports and results, with names of judges, committees, marshals and winners:

Managers: John C. Greenway, of Arkansas; Oliver W. Catchings, of Mississippi; Edgar E. Stone, of Winchester. Property man, W. Walter Little, of Arkansas. Judges: Prof. Knibb Nelson, D. D.; Mr. Samuel E. Arthur; Mr. William Cabell Brown. Starter, Mr. Robert K. Massie. Time-keeper, Mr. Ernest M. Stires. Reception committee: J. Murray Dill, Wm. W. Hoxton and Edmund Moss. Marshals: C. L. Hepburn, R. L. King, I. W. Patton, F. N. Rix.

Telegraphic Brevities.

E. H. Douglas, proprietor of the Grand View stud farm, near Franklin, Tenn., has suffered a serious loss by fire, several valuable thorough bred horses perishing in the flames that destroyed a barn.

A fire at Rock Rapids yesterday, destroyed the First National bank, the Masonic and Knights of Pythias lodge rooms, and a number of other buildings. The fire is supposed to be of incendiary origin. The losses amount to $80,000.

An early morning fire at Allegheny City, Pa., destroyed Covey's Brass Foundry and the building adjoining, occupied by a carpet cleaning company. Two stalls in the rear were also burned. A colored boiler is supposed to have been burned to death. The loss is $40,000.

Emperor William will sail for Venice tomorrow on board a German warship. The members of his suite will travel over land to Berlin. The Sultan gave a banquet at the Yildiz Kiosk last night in honor of the Emperor and Empress. Emperor William then conferred the decoration of the Hohenzollern family order upon the Sultan and placed the collar of the order upon the Sultan's neck with his own hands.

The miners' strike at Spring Valley, Ill., is thought to be virtually settled. Yesterday a contract was mailed to President Scott that he will probably accept, as it is his own contract slightly modified. About seventy miners from Seatonville went to Spring Valley to work yesterday. The shaft at that place was closed down on account of trouble with its men.

The President formally opened the Southern Exposition at Montgomery, Ala., to-day by touching the key of a telegraph wire at the White House connecting with the exposition building and putting the machinery in motion.

Col. McIntyre, manager of the Chicago horse show, was run over by a horse and cart in the exhibition building to-day and was seriously, and it is thought fatally hurt.

A dispatch from Joliet, Ill., says the great stone pool which has gobbled all of Lamont is working to get possession of the Joliet quarries.

A Pittsburg dispatch reports a movement to form a barbed wire trust, which, if formed, will be capitalized at several millions of dollars.

The municipal elections held throughout Italy on Sunday resulted in victories for the liberals and radicals and defeats for the clericals.

A fire at Allentown, Pa., this morning destroyed a number of buildings causing a loss of $10,000.

Scandal has divided one of the oldest, richest and most respectable congregations of the Protestant Episcopal Church in New York. Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Ely, who has been charged by some members of St. Mark's Church, in the Bowery, with gross immorality, and he has faced his accusers and demanded a trial. Failing to secure this from them he has appealed to a court of law for redress and has sued the men who were most active in spreading the defamatory rumors to recover heavy pecuniary damages.

The Ball Players' Brotherhood, composed of players of the National League, have announced their intention to play ball on their own account, and to-morrow the first annual meeting of the "Players' National League" will be held at New York when the final disposition of clubs and players will be made. Brooklyn and Buffalo, it is said, will take the place of Indianapolis and Washington.

Hon. Jefferson Davis writes in pencil and from a sick bed regretting his inability on account of impaired health to be present at the celebration to be held at Fayetteville on the 21st inst., of the centennial of the ratification by North Carolina of the Constitution.

Col. J. Henry Sellman, Collector of Internal Revenue, in Baltimore, Md., believes in it for rheumatism. He writes: I have tried Salsolium Oil, and believe it to be a good remedy for rheumatism.

Abraham Hatfield, aged thirty eight years, entered the Milford (Mass.) Methodist Church Sunday evening during service and set fire to oil saturated cushions. The fire was soon discovered and extinguished amid much excitement. Hatfield was arrested.

MONTANA CAPTURED BY FRAUD.—The State canvassing board of Montana by ignoring democratic majorities in Silver Bow county has counted in the entire republican majority, and the Legislature is made republican on joint ballot. The board reached its results by throwing out the returns from Silver Bow, alleging that the clerk of the county refused them a certified copy.

The chaplain for Congress seems to pray hard enough, but still he does no good: not so with Dr. Bull: his cough syrup has never failed to cure the most stubborn cough and cold.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

The Election in Virginia. [Special dispatches to the Alexandria Gazette.] [By Western Union Telegraph.]

RICHMOND, Nov. 5.—The weather is fair and the election is progressing with very little excitement. A large white vote is being polled. At the first precinct in Clay ward, the largest white precinct in the city and the one at which hundreds of working men vote, there was no friction whatever up to 11 o'clock, and all but fifty or sixty, who voted, showed by their ballots they were democrats. It is presumed the others were republicans. Up to 11:30 of the registered voters at this precinct only 49 are negroes. At the first precinct in Marshall ward, known as Rocketts, the vote was polled rapidly. This precinct is noted for having the largest per centage of white republicans in Richmond. In Jackson ward, known as the black belt, the vote is slow; at the first precinct with over a thousand registered negroes, the polling is at the rate of 55 an hour. James C. Smith is the republican challenger and James Lyons, ex-Assistant District U. S. Attorney, President Balvin, of the Powhatan Club and Harry Smith, Jr., a lawyer, are the democratic challengers. Among the large white contingent at this precinct was Mr. John G. Ellett, president of the State Bank. At the 2nd Jackson precinct the voting is very slow, only ten negroes had voted up to 8 o'clock. At the 3rd and 4th precincts the negroes were voting much faster. B. Taylor McCus, a prominent tobaccoist and member of Mahone's State executive committee, was arrested in Jackson ward for overhauling. Michael Fall, a young democrat, and Phil Lambert, a republican, engaged in an altercation last night over politics. Lambert after being badly beaten got a shot gun and fired at Fall. The latter died this morning. The election is progressing smoothly in Manchester. Richmond will probably give 3000 democratic majority.

DANVILLE, Nov. 5.—Weather is delightful and both sides are voting lively. The negroes formed a solid line and at sunrise Rev. Graham, colored, marshaled his forces in the Third ward. All bands, with few exceptions, voted for Mahone. At noon the negroes had about polled their full strength but whites were still voting, and the indications point to the largest democratic majority Danville and North Danville ever polled. Only one white man voted the republican ticket in North Danville and less than a dozen in Danville. Several negroes were arrested for attempting to vote more than one ballot. One tried to vote six ballots folded into one. One of the negro ticket holders arrested was armed with two pistols.

HARRISONBURG, Nov. 5.—The election is passing off quietly and a full vote is being polled. There is every indication of substantial democratic gains in Harrisonburg and Rockingham. A majority for McKinney seems conceded, with a good show for the legislative ticket.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 5.—The weather is bright and cool. A very large vote is being polled and the democrats are in the lead. Reports from the county indicate a democratic majority in Rockbridge of two hundred or more. There has been no trouble and the full democratic vote will be polled.

LYNCHBURG, Nov. 5.—A heavy vote is being polled and everything is quiet. A great many negroes are voting the democratic ticket. At this hour, 12 m., the whites have polled five hundred more votes than the negroes. The democrats will carry the city by a largely increased majority.

MANASSAS, Nov. 5.—The election is progressing quietly. Both sides working hard. From present indications the democratic majority will reach one hundred and twenty against Cleveland's majority of fifty-nine.

STAUNTON, Nov. 5.—The election is passing off quietly, 1,000 votes having been cast at 12 m. In 1888 the full vote for President was 1234. Cleveland's majority in the city was 204. The indications are that McKinney's majority in this city will be about 400 and 1500 in the county and city. Cleveland's majority in the city and county was 998.

WYTHEVILLE, Nov. 5.—The democrats are making large gains in this city. The county will give at least 200 democratic majority.

WOODSTOCK, Nov. 5.—The majority over Mahone will be largely increased and the same will be the case with the general ticket.

LEESBURG, Nov. 5.—In Leesburg a good vote has been polled so far. The democrats are perfectly satisfied with the indications of the result.

ABINGDON, Nov. 5.—A full democratic vote is being polled at Abingdon with large gains up to 2 o'clock. Returns meagre but enough is known to insure the county a democratic majority of from four to five hundred.

FAIRFAX C. H., Nov. 5.—The vote at Fairfax C. H. at this hour, 1 p. m., is 210. The democrats are more than holding their own.

WARRENTON, Nov. 5.—A very full vote is being brought out. The whites are voting straight and are dividing the colored vote. This precinct will swell its majority from 230 to 300. Good order and good feeling prevail.

3:55 p. m.—The vote polled here indicates 1,400 democratic majority in Fauquier county. Warrenton more than doubled, and her majority will reach 320.

SOUTH BOSTON, Halifax county, Nov. 5.—Election quiet. More colored men voting the democratic ticket than ever known before. Reports indicate that this is general in the county. The democratic majority in Halifax will be large.

GORDONSVILLE, Nov. 5.—No opposition to Gordon for the Senate. Things going on well here. Majority for McKinney; here tofore republican.

[By Postal Telegraph.]

NORFOLK, Nov. 5.—The election has progressed thus far very quietly, no excitement whatever being manifested. The colored vote is small, and the indications are that the democratic ticket will carry the city by several hundred majority.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 5.—The election is proceeding quietly, a heavy vote being polled. In the 6th ward hundreds of voters are in line, two rows being formed, one of whites and the other of negroes. Democrats are confident of carrying the city, and bets are being offered of $10 to $5 that McKinney will carry the State. A drunken man has not been seen on the streets and no trouble is apprehended. Sixty extra police on duty.

FREDERICKSBURG, Nov. 5.—Greatest enthusiasm is prevailing here among the democrats. The republicans are corresponding depressed. The majority here for the entire democratic ticket will be largely in excess of last year and will probably reach 350. The most cheering news comes from Spotsylvania, Stafford, Louisa and King George.

By Associated Press.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—The indications are that a full vote is being polled throughout the State. Both parties in this city had their forces at the polls early, but while the democrats have been voting steadily, the negroes have not, as yet, turned out in their usual strength. At this hour, 12 m., contrary to the expectations of many up to noon not a ripple of discord has occurred between the two parties. The democrats are in high feather, and appear confident of victory by a large majority. The republicans are not faltering in their belief of success but they will not come forward, alleging that it is too early in the day. Much interest is manifested in the election, and but little business is being transacted, many of those who have already voted have begun to gather in knots on the streets and others to visit the newspaper offices vainly searching for election news which is yet scant with professional gatherers.

DANVILLE, Nov. 5.—The weather clear and balmy. Voting on both sides is lively. The whites for McKinney and the negroes for Mahone, almost to a man. Several negroes have been arrested for trying to vote double ballots. One negro attempted to vote a batch of six tickets folded into one. The indications point to a full vote in Danville and vicinity. Danville and North Danville will give an unprecedented majority for the democratic ticket. All quiet and no disturbance.

ROANOKE, Nov. 5.—The day opened beautifully and the weather is fine. A very full vote is being polled but everything is passing off quietly. The town is such a busy one that the people cast their ballots and return to business at once, a very few whites remaining about the polls.

LYNCHBURG, Nov. 5.—A heavy vote is being polled. A great many negroes are voting the democratic ticket. The democrats will carry the city by a largely increased majority.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 5.—An unusually large vote is being polled all over this (Rockbridge) county. The vote is unprecedented at this precinct for midday. The democrats are leading here with a good majority, and the same reports have been received from other sections of the county. From present indications Mahone will be beaten here by 200 or more. Everything is quiet.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Nov. 5.—The weather is bright and the voting fast. There has been no disturbance except the arrest of a negro for interference with voters. The indications are that a heavy vote will be polled.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 5.—The day is cool and partially cloudy. A heavy vote is being polled.

NORFOLK, Nov. 5.—The weather is fair and pleasant. The election is progressing quietly but actively. In two precincts three negroes have been arrested in the act of putting double tickets in the box. The outlook is for the largest democratic vote ever polled in this district. The republicans are also active. From present indications the democrats will make decided gains over last fall in Norfolk and Portsmouth.

HARRISONBURG, Nov. 5.—The weather is fine. The vote is not quite as full as at this time last year. Many white and colored republicans are voting against Mahone. The indications are that this precinct which gave Harrison 141 majority, will give at least 50 for McKinney.

WINCHESTER, Nov. 5.—A large vote is being polled. Both sides are active and there is no evidence of any fraud.

The Election in Other States

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—The weather throughout this State is generally fair and cool. Reports so far received indicate an "off year" vote. In this city everything is quiet, and a large amount of scratching is reported.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5.—A full vote is being polled and both parties are confident, but the regular democrats are claiming their usual majority in the city.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—The election in this city to-day is for county officers. The weather is gloomy and cold and it is believed that not more than 60 per cent of the full vote will be cast.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5.—Clear and cool weather prevails generally throughout Pennsylvania to-day and points thus far heard from report a very light vote being polled.

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—A large, early vote has been polled, and the full average vote of an off year is indicated.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 5.—The weather is clear and bracing. At 10 a. m. fully two thirds of the vote in this city had been cast. The indications now are that a full vote will be cast in Cincinnati. Foreaker is being scratched at Columbus. It is estimated that the absence of rain means from 2,500 to 3,000 republican votes in the western reserve.

Prize Fight.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Nov. 5.—One of the hardest fought prize fights that has taken place along the Hudson river in years, came off early this morning at Highland Falls, below this city. The battle was between Jim Daly, of Philadelphia, and Bill Gabig, of Pittsburg, and was for a purse of $500. The fighting was fierce and fast: from start to finish and after the first few rounds everything was in Daly's favor. There were about 200 sporting men from New York, Philadelphia, Newburgh and other cities. Tom Morris of this city was referee. The battle lasted 11 rounds and was given to Daly after he had knocked Gabig out in the 11th round.

The Prince of Wales.

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Nov. 5.—The Prince of Wales sailed on the Royal yacht Osborne from Alexandria for the Piraeus to-day. Upon his arrival at Alexandria from Cairo he received an ovation. The streets were decorated with garlands and flags, and triumphal arches were erected along the route taken by the prince. Prior to his departure a luncheon was given on board the Osborne, which was attended by a number of Egyptian officials.

Big Egg Roast.

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—About ten and a half millions of eggs were cooked in Chicago last evening. The occasion was the burning of the upper floors of the western refrigerating company's cold storage warehouse. The fifth and sixth floors of the great structure were wrecked by fire and water, and 30,000 cases of eggs and agricultural products were totally consumed.

In Memoriam.

GEORGE W. SWANN was born in Fredericksburg, Va., October, 1850, and died in Warrenton, October 25th, 1889. From Fredericksburg he went with his parents to Alexandria. In the fall of 1885 he came to this city in the employ of Mr. Houshens, a general and even exposition won for him many friends. Cheerfulness shone in his countenance, rang in his voice, was the elasticity of his every movement; not boisterous, yet calm like a cloudless summer evening. He appreciated everything natural. His was a nature that restored no ill feeling. Malice was foreign to his instincts. The laboring classes enjoyed his bounty and sincere sympathy. He leaves a father and mother and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his loss. "The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." A FRIEND.

WARRENTON, Nov. 1.

Tribute of Respect.

At a regular meeting of B. E. Lee Camp, No. 3, Confederate Veterans, held November 3rd, 1889, the following resolutions were adopted in memory of our worthy comrade, G. FRANK KELLER.

Whereas it has pleased the Grand Commander of the United States to permit death again to enter our camp and remove from our midst our worthy and beloved comrade; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of this camp, and as individual members thereof, that we have met with an irreparable loss. Our comrade had endeavored himself to us by the strict adherence to the principles for which he fought and by his pleasant and cheerful character and his kindness to all in distress and sorrow. Born on Christmas day, 1841, he continued to meet him in the presence of the Most High, who deem all hearts well. We extend to the bereaved our heartfelt sympathies in this irreparable loss, but which we trust is his everlasting gain. We would say to them, be ye faithful unto the end, that in heaven you may meet the loved one gone before.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the camp, that they be published in the daily papers and that a copy be sent to his daughter.

COMMERCIAL.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Nov. 5.—There is a change in flour. The demand for wheat is restricted entirely to good choices lots for milling purposes, inferior grades being almost impossible to move; prices are a shade lower, and we quote at from 75 to 82. Corn is 1c higher, and we quote at from 42 to 44. But little doing in Rye or Oats. Country produce is quiet.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—Hogs.—There is a fair offering to-day, only some 300 head less than last week. The demand is not especially active, only a moderate trade reported in all the yards. The quality is about as usual, fairly well suited to the general needs of butchers. We quote the range of prices from 5 to 6c, rough hogs at 5 1/2c, and the choice ones up to 6c, most sales being at 5 3/4c to 5 1/2c per lb.

Receipts of Sheep 3445 head, with sales at $34 40 per 100 lbs, and Lamb at 4 1/2c per lb.

NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET, Nov. 4.—Beef—There is a little firmer tone in respect to good Cattle; native steers and at $34 75 to $35 100 lbs, native bulls at $17 50 to $18 75, and Texas steers, $33 10. Calves quiet; veals $5 75 to 60, and grassers and Western calves $2 25 to $2 50 per 100 lbs. Sheep and Lamb—market steady for Sheep at $3 70 to 25, and lower for Lamb at $4 50 to 25 per 100 lbs. Hogs—market quiet for live hogs at $15 40 to 60 per 100 lbs.

GEORGETOWN CATTLE MARKET, Nov. 4.—188 Cattle were offered and sold as follows: Best 3 1/2c, good 3 1/4c, medium 3 1/2c, common 2 1/2c. 296 Sheep and Lamb were offered; the former brought 34 1/2c, and the latter 56 1/2c. Calves brought 58 1/2c. 30 Cows and Calves sold at $25 40 per head. Market fair.
